CUTS OF THE SPOT

One ad, counted as one campaign

The William Wells spot aired as a 30-second original and, from July on, a faster 15-second cut. Both are bundled into a single campaign line — one ad, one total for plays, one total for time on screen.

What this means for William Wells

FREE REACH

26 screens for the price of 10

16 screens MCTV added at no charge — 62% of the rooms the spot played in, more than doubling the footprint of the 10-screen plan.

THE JULY REFRESH

The 15-second cut airs more often

Since the spot was tightened to 15 seconds in July, it has aired 67,890 times — roughly 980 plays a day, up from about 800 a day for the 30-second original.

TOP SCREEN

Uno Mas carried 12% alone

36,019 plays and 263 hours of screen time in one of Starkville's busiest dining rooms, with Two Brothers Smoked Meats close behind at 29,579.

VALUE

About 1.4¢ per play

$4,200 over twelve months bought 290,148 plays and 2,135 hours on screen — roughly 11,160 plays per screen.

Cannon Chevrolet GMC of West Point hosted the spot for two weeks in January before its screen left the rotation; its 341 plays are included in every figure above.

Three ways to keep rolling

OPTION 1

Stay the course

$350 PER MONTH

- Your 10 selected screens stay in rotation
- All 16 gifted screens stay too — at no charge
- The spot keeps running exactly as it does today, ~29K plays a month at its current pace

RECOMMENDED

OPTION 2

Screens + Google

$400 PER MONTH

- Everything in Option 1 — all 26 screens, gifted included
- Google Business Profile management — posts, photos, hours and reviews kept current
- Show up first when drivers search “tire shop near me”

OPTION 3

The full network

$650 PER MONTH

- Every screen on the entire Golden Triangle network — Starkville, Columbus & West Point
- Google Business Profile management included
- Network reach in all three towns where you have a shop
